Bibliography

Bell, J (2010), Doing Your Research Project, 5th edn Open University Press

Blaxter, L, Hughes, C and Tight, M (2010), How to Research, 4th edn Open University Press

Buck, A, Smith, M, Sidaway, J and Balmer, N (2010), Community Legal Advice Centres: A Survey of Clients in Reception Areas, Legal Services Research Centre

Buck, A, Smith, M, Sidaway, J and Scanlan, L (2010), Piecing it Together: Exploring One-Stop Shop Legal Service Delivery in Community Legal Advice Centres, Legal Services Commission

Byrom, N (2013), The State of the Sector: The impact of cuts to civil legal aid on practitioners and their clients, Centre for Human Rights in Practice, University of Warwick in association with illegal

Civil Society Online 2013 - BIG grants £54m funding to almost half of all Citizens Advice Bureaux, 15 May http://www.civilsociety.co.uk/finance/news/content/15158/big_grants_funding_to_almosthalf_of_all_citizens_advice_bureaux

Kritzer, H (2008), To Lawyer or Not to Lawyer: Is that the Question? Journal of Law and Society, 18, pp452-79

Legal Action, 2013. Early thoughts of the Low Commission, April pp16-17

Patel, A and Smith, M (2013), Provision of Telephone-Based Advice Services: Summary of Findings on the Perspective of Advisors, Legal Services Research Centre

Patel, A and Smith, M (2013), A quantitative comparison of telephone and face-to-face specialist Community Legal Service funded debt cases, Legal Services Research Centre

Sigafoos, J and Morris, D (2013), The Impact of Legal Aid Cuts on Advice-Giving Charities in Liverpool: First Results, Charity Law & Policy Unit, University of Liverpool

